

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Democracy in the US is at risk with the current trend of putting commercial concerns above needs and desires of the people.

Only an "informed democracy" can be trusted. Diverse media is the key to an informed democracy.